Founded in 2008, the Chester County Sports Hall of Fame (CCSHOF) is a nonprofit, membership-based volunteer organization dedicated to preserving the rich athletic history of Chester County. Each year, the CCSHOF membership selects a distinguished group of athletes, coaches, and community members who have excelled on the playing field or provided dedicated service to sports at various levels. Since 2008, more than 200 Chester County individuals, organizations, and teams have been inducted into the CCSHOF for their lifetime accomplishments at the Olympic, professional, collegiate, high school, and community levels.

The annual induction process culminates in a celebratory event held each November. The Class of 2026 inductees will be honored at a banquet on November 14, 2026, at the Red Clay Room in Kennett Square, Pennsylvania.

To commemorate the occasion, the CCSHOF publishes a program booklet featuring biographies and accomplishments of each inductee. Advertising space is available for local businesses, schools, family members, and others wishing to congratulate the inductees or support the CCSHOF. Details regarding advertisement sizes and pricing are provided separately.
